

Management Liability CrossWord

Across

6. Coverage for employee theft and other acts of fraud and theft by outside parties
7. Underwriting information needed to determine the health of an organization. At minimum includes a balance sheet and income statement.
8. Liability coverage for claims alleging breach of duties as defined by ERISA.
10. Acronym for Employment Practices Liability

Down

1. An individual holding a position of command or high authority within an organization

2. A member of an entity's board which oversees the affairs of a business
3. Amount of money specified in the policy for which an insured is directly responsible. The carrier will pay for the damages/ expenses of any covered loss in excess of the same.
4. Our management liability online portal for quoting new business opportunities. Another word for prompt or quick
5. Requested underwriting information that details the individuals or entities with shares/ interest in a company
9. Coverage that protects businesses before, during and after a systems/ IT related breach