

Name: _____

Date: _____

Marigolds

- | | |
|---|----------------|
| 1. When something is profoundly moving or touching | A. Exuberance |
| 2. When something is apparent or supposed | B. Perverse |
| 3. Something given in repayment, usually as a punishment | C. Stoicism |
| 4. Indifference to pleasure or pain, or a lack of visible emotion | D. Retribution |
| 5. When something is stubbornly contrary, wrong, or harmful | E. Squalor |
| 6. A false show of bravery | F. Poignant |
| 7. If someone is lacking strength or vigor | G. Degradation |
| 8. A condition of unrestrained joy | H. Ostensible |
| 9. The condition of being brought to a lower level or humiliated | I. Bravado |
| 10. A filthy, shabby, and wretched condition, as from poverty | J. Impotent |