

Matching for MSK Drugs

1. Which antimetabolite when taken in low doses is prescribed to treat rheumatoid arthritis? A. teriparatide
2. Folic acid is used to combat nausea and vomiting caused by what drug for RA treatment? B. colchicine
3. What drug used to treat Lupus causes bone loss when used at high doses? C. alendronate
4. What drug increases bone formation by increasing the number of osteoblasts? D. ketorolac
5. What drug used to treat osteoporosis includes the adverse effects nausea, headaches, back pain, dizziness, syncope, leg cramps, and back pain? E. allopurinol
6. What drug decreases the rate of bone breakdown and causes upper GI irritation? F. prednisone
7. Which medication is used to lower uric acid levels? G. carisoprodol/methocarbamol
8. Which medication used to treat the symptoms of gout stops the migration of WBCs which diminishes the inflammatory reaction? H. naproxen
9. What medications are used to treat muscle spasms and may cause dizziness and drowsiness? I. teriparatide
10. Which NSAID should be limited to use of 5 days due to the high risk of GI complications including perforation? J. methotrexate
11. What OTC NSAID commonly used for headaches is also an effective pain reliever for people with osteoarthritis? K. methotrexate