

Material Properties

Across

2. What property is able to withstand sharp blows without shattering?
3. What property is able to be joined permanently to another material through heat?
5. What is another word for cutting?
7. What property is able to withstand scratching and denting?
8. What is another word for pushing?
9. What is another word for twisting?

10. what is one strength that starts with the letter B?

Down

1. What are materials differences referred to as?
4. Who has to think about what properties that they need in their products?
6. What is another word for pulling?