

Name: _____

Date: _____

Math Crossword

Across

1. This is the formula $y=mx+b$
 4. a system with no solutions
 6. the greatest number that goes into all the numbers in the equation
 11. This cannot be repeated at the bottom of the table
 14. a number above a number signifying to multiply that number by itself that many times
 16. an ordered pair where two lines meet
 18. a square root sign

19. a reduced version of a very long number

20. a equation that has and absolute value expression

Down

2. A graph with two or more linear equations
 3. a system that has infinitely many solutions
 5. pair of inequalities joined by and or or
 7. compound inequality joined by and

8. you start with a formula then you get this when you add numbers

9. A relation where each input has one output

10. compound inequality joined by or

12. the rise and run of a line

13. You add numbers to it to make an equation

15. This can be repeated at the bottom of a table

17. a number under the square root sign