

Math Vocabulary Practice

Across

3. When two addends are the same number they are called _____.

5. What operation are you applying when you join sets together and they equal a sum?

7. When you start on the greater number on a number line and take away the smaller number you are counting _____.

9. When you subtract two numbers the answer is called the _____.

10. When you _____ you take away from another number.

11. The answer to an addition problem.

12. When you start at the first addend using a numberline and add the second number to it you are _____.

Down

1. Sometimes called a fact family.

2. Addition and subtraction sentences that use the same numbers are called a _____.

4. Any numbers being added together are called _____.

6. What do you call a picture that displays rows and columns of the same length?

8. The opposite of add.

Word Bank

addition counting on

addends

doubles

Subtract

array

subtract

back

difference

sum

related facts

fact family