

Name: _____

Date: _____

Math Wizard

Across

1. Distance, form, size, and relative location of a figure are all connected to space characteristics.
5. the study of numbers and how they are used
8. the branch of mathematics in which numbers are represented by letters and other basic symbols
9. adding something to something else is the action or process of adding something to something else.
10. There are two or more numbers in every mathematical product.

Down

2. procedure of subtracting one number or quantity from another
3. someone or something's outer form, curves, or outline
4. the spreading of anything that has been split into pieces
6. the distance between two crossing lines or surfaces at or around the point where they meet (typically measured in degrees)
7. a phrase that specifies factors to be multiplied, or the result of multiplication