

Maxillary Canines

Across

3. In the permanent dentition the canine has a longer distal cusp slope, but in the primary dentition the distal cusp is _____ relative to the mesial cusp.
6. How many maxillary canines are present in the entire permanent dentition?
7. What is the tooth number for the permanent maxillary right canine? (Universal Numbering System)
8. The canine is distal to what tooth?

10. The canine has the _____ root in the maxillary arch.

Down

1. The canine is mesial to what tooth?
2. What is the tooth number for the permanent maxillary left canine? (Universal Numbering System)
4. The canine is also called what?
5. The canine functions to pierce and _____ food during mastication.
9. When do the permanent maxillary canines erupt? (_____ to 12 years)