

Media Madness

Across

- 4. reporters in news media
- 5. beliefs held and expressed by a large group of people
- 7. a tone in writing or speaking that shows bias
- 9. the representation of facts without bias

- 12. to use ideas or information that may be exaggerated in order to help a person or even hurt another person(s)
- 13. quickly coming to a stop

Down

- 1. to bother
- 2. to recognize something

- 3. a tone in writing or speaking that is without bias
- 6. personal point of view, opinion or value about a topic
- 8. to not favor any one side
- 10. to not care about something or others
- 11. To take one side only, which makes an unfair judgement

Word Bank

- | | | | |
|------------|---------|----------------|-----------------|
| apathy | disturb | public opinion | impartial |
| discern | press | stopped dead | subjective tone |
| subjective | bias | propaganda | objective tone |
| objective | | | |