

Media and Democracy

Across

2. Responsibility (Mr. Mwarira)
 5. To portray
 8. A public announcement about recent events in a specific area
 11. To observe
 14. To give assent to an action
 16. A political system in which the citizens can elect their parliamentary representatives
 18. A set of which both the government and the citizens are expected to abide by
 19. The main modes through which relative content is shared to the public
 20. To correct errors in a visual or written piece
 22. A community of people
 24. To supervising content that has been published through the media

26. The action of emancipating a group of people or an individual
 27. A general collection of people
 29. Term for recent affairs
 30. Content that is kept private usually out of fear.

Down

1. To transmit content to the public through media outlets
 3. Rules that modulate the actions of the both the citizens and their government
 4. Conveying somebody's introspective veivs
 6. The exaggeration of stories in order to create public excitement with the absence of some facts
 7. Not concealing the truth as to avoid biasedness
 9. An inspection of content in the media

10. The ability of an individual or group of people to do as they please
 12. The actuality of a certain subject
 13. A group of journalists
 15. The origin of information especially in journalism
 17. To have the ability for one to exercise their legal privileges
 21. prejudice content published by the media, usually political
 23. A remark that is made usually to convey your personal views
 25. A concept
 28. A key matter that needs to be resolved