

Medical Anthropology At The Intersections

Across

- 7. The idea of promoting human welfare and caring about other human beings
- 8. Involvement in the purpose of producing social change.
- 9. It is a part of what makes us human.
- 10. A substance containing no real medication and prescribed to reinforce a patient's expectation to get well.
- 11. We often interpret Medical Anthropology in a context of [...]

Down

- 1. HIV, Malaria, Tuberculosis are often called [...]
- 2. It is the Anthropology put in good use. Also known as "practicing Anthropology."
- 3. Term for questioning the origin of knowledge
- 4. The author calls it "Sister Discipline" of medical anthropology
- 5. When we critique Medicine, the focus is usually on [...]
- 6. Most universally experienced form of difference