

Medical Emergencies

Across

2. a temporary blockage of blood flow to the brain, often abbreviated as TIA

3. the first step of providing first aid is making sure the...

9. The first step of bleeding control is to apply this

11. this is used when direct pressure doesn't work

12. this medical emergency is a "clot problem"

13. someone who is having an asthma attack needs to use one of these

15. a short period of time when a person briefly stops responding and then seems fine

16. the most common type of stroke

Down

1. checking responsiveness, checking for breathing and checking for obvious injuries are steps for

4. a person who is irritable, hungry, and sweating may be suffering from this medical emergency

5. this medical emergency is a "rhythm problem"

6. you should wash your hands for this long

7. this medicine is given to someone who may be having a heart attack

8. a disease of the air passages

10. FAST is an acronym used with this medical emergency

14. moving objects out of the way and placing padding under the head are first aid steps for this emergency