

Medical Law

Across

- 4. A list of questions from each party to the other in the lawsuit
- 5. This type of insurance covers both bodily harm and nonphysical, noneconomic harm
- 6. Performing an act that is legal but not properly performed
- 10. A law enacted at the federal level and pass through Congress
- 12. This type of compensation is for pain and suffering
- 13. The failure of a provider to perform his or her duties
- 14. This type of insurance protects the healthcare facility if there is an accident that causes harm

- 15. Failure of a provider or facility to perform that is reasonable

- 17. A minor crime

- 19. Intentionally doing something either dishonest or illegal

- 20. Oral testimony of a party or witness in a trial

Down

- 1. An alternative to trial in which a third party or cohesen to hear evidence and make a decision
- 2. Failure to perform an act that should have been performed
- 3. This type of medical insurance protects the provider and/or facility if there is a judgement against them for negligence

- 7. The person bringing the case to court

- 8. The outcome of a trial

- 9. Murder is an example of this type of crime

- 11. This type damage are designed to punish the party who committed wrong and normally have a monetary value associated.

- 16. Consent given after the patient is asked a question

- 18. This person facilitates as third party to help those involved in a dispute solve their own problems