

Medical Law and Ethics

Across

- 3. Negative generalities concerning specific characteristics about a group
6. Improper, illegal, or negligent professional activity or treatment, especially by a medical practitioner, lawyer, or public official
8. Concerning or relating to what is right and wrong in human behavior
10. Acting or indifferent to moral standards
11. A number signed to an employer for purposes of identification
16. Responsible by law; legally answerable
17. Unfair dislike or preference for something

- 18. Also called utilitarianism, an ethical approach in which the benefit of the decision should outweigh the cost
20. United States legislation that provides data privacy and security provisions for safeguarding medical information
21. Breach of doctor - patient contract
Down
1. Person who owes money to another person
2. A requirement that all covered entities under HIPAA must be in compliance with the privacy, security, and electronic data provisions
4. What is another term for Respondent Superior?
5. Unwanted sexual advances or requests for sexual favors

- 7. Moral principles or values
9. The branch of law that deals with the application of medical knowledge to legal problems.
12. The act of saying false things in order to make people have a bad opinion of someone or something
13. Use (something) to bad effect or for a bad purpose; misuse
14. Bodily harm and unlawful touching
15. Moral conduct based on principles relegating the behavior of healthcare professionals
19. The federal office that investigates violations of HIPAA