

Medical Terminology

Across

6. An acronym for the five principles of compassionate care also known as person centered care
7. The legal limits and extent of a health care worker's role
8. Self-care activities people perform daily to remain independent and to function in society
9. The complex skills needed to successfully live independently
10. The use of responsible judgement to avoid causing distress or embarrassment to a person

Down

1. The process of restoring of a person to the highest possible level of functioning through the use of therapy, exercise
2. Respecting, guarding, and using discretion in regard to personal and private information about another person
3. An approach to work that demonstrates respect for others, commitment, competence and appropriate behaviour
4. The ability to think clearly and logically using reflection and reason, based on knowledge obtained from experience, observation or education
5. A health care worker who provides services to people both in facilities and in the community, who need help with their daily activities