

Name: _____

Date: _____

Medical Terminology

Across

2. Decreased urine output, fluid retention, and shortness of breath are symptoms of _____ failure
3. Joint pain, redness, warmth, and stiffness are all symptoms of _____ Arthritis
5. You might observe blanching of the skin, inflammation, or cool temperature with this complication following IV placement
8. _____ syndrome is caused by excessive cortisol. Symptoms include weight gain, "moon face" and "buffalo hump"
10. _____ Syndrome occurs when increased pressure causes circulation to an area to be restricted, most commonly seen in patients with casts
11. The facial "butterfly rash" is characteristic of this autoimmune disease
13. A stroke caused by a lack of oxygen to the brain

16. Shortness of breath, cough, and chest pain are all symptoms of this pulmonary issue caused by a clot

19. Polyuria, polydipsia, and polyphagia are all symptoms of this

20. A fruity breath odor can indicate diabetic _____

21. Jaundice, easy bruising, and fatigue are symptoms of _____ of the liver which can occur in patients who use alcohol or have viral Hepatitis B or C

Down

1. Lower right quadrant pain, fever, nausea and vomiting are symptoms of _____

4. A tuberculin (PPD) skin test is performed to test for this infectious disease. Symptoms include a productive cough, chills and sweating at night, anorexia, and fatigue

6. Hives, swollen tongue, and constriction of the airway are all symptoms of this life-threatening reaction

7. Pain and swelling in the leg and pain in the calf are indicators of Deep Vein _____ caused by a clot

9. Detached _____ is the cause of sudden loss of vision, often described as "a curtain over the visual field"

12. Asymmetry, Border irregularity, varying Color, large Diameter and Evolution or change are all indicators of _____ in a mole

14. Symptoms include numbness or paralysis on one side, confusion, and severe headache

15. A stroke caused by a blockage cutting off perfusion

17. This type of arthritis usually affects the big toe and manifests in warmth, swelling, redness, and acute onset of pain

18. A stroke caused by a bleed in the brain