

Name: _____

Medication Administration -- Recertification 1

Across

3. Use of Glucometer: Rotate finger sites to avoid formation of these.

5. To renew your certificate, you must have this approved continuing education on or before your renewal (anniversary) date.

8. This is what is given when consumer is not able to swallow/drink during a hypoglycemic (low blood sugar) episode.

9. Scheduled/controlled substance are drugs that are restricted due to their potential for this or this.

10. Overview of Medications by Category: This is a category of drug used to treat mental illness.

11. Medication Administration: the right this

12. Medication administration ALWAYS includes the 6 rights: the right this.

13. Always check a consumer's this when administering any type of medication.

14. Some examples of scheduled/controlled substances include: narcotics, stimulants, this and a couple others.

15. Use Your Brain--Before performing a task to assist a consumer, do this.

Down

1. Medication Administration: The last two rights are this and this

2. Use Your Brain--After introducing yourself to a consumer before assisting him/her with a task, do this.

4. Overview of Medications by Category: Used to control this, are analgesics.

6. Medication Administration: the right time and this

7. DO NOT: Leave these in your documentation.