

Medieval Doctors and Medicine

Across

2. letting the blood flow out of the body to prevent the spread of disease in the body.

3. to lay down principles as undeniably true

5. drilling holes in the skull to release evil spirits

8. a place where people who are ill or injured are treated and taken care of by doctors and nurses

12. an irrational belief which is not based on reason or knowledge

13. blood, phlegm, yellow bile and black bile were the 4 bodily h _ _ _ _ _s

14. sepsis

15. a therapy based on aromatic materials

17. a tool often used for shaving hair

19. a metal instrument that is used to dilate an orifice or canal in the body to allow inspection

20. a place of higher education

Down

1. whipping as atonement for sins

4. a small double sided surgical knife

6. not clean or sanitary

7. small bugs that carried the bacteria that cause the black death

9. A trained person who helps the sick

10. a cutting tool with two blades

11. a small sharp metal implement with a small hole used to inject fluids into tissue

16. a medieval pharmacist

18. the name of a plague that became a pandemic in the 17th century

Word Bank

apothecary

scissors

trepanation

Bubonic

dogmatism

fleas

university

bloodletting

flagellation

razor

needle

doctor

superstition

hospital

speculum

blood poisoning

humours

aromatherapy

unhygienic

lancet