

Name: _____

Medieval Times

Across

4. The person with the most power in Medieval times
5. homes were very overcrowded and located close beside each other. This spread
8. people through their rubbish and sewerage onto the _____
12. streets were mainly _____ in medieval towns
13. A safe and secure place where the lord/king slept in a castle
16. Many of peoples treatments for the plague were very
19. second stage of becoming a master-craftsman
20. a town needed a _____ from a king. Here the town was allowed to run its own affairs but had to pay taxes to the king.
22. first stage of becoming a knight
27. a wooden type of castle in Medieval Times
28. A system of land ownership and division of Power in Middle Ages

Down

30. second stage of becoming a knight
31. carpenters, blacksmiths, stonemasons, butchers and bakers were all examples of what in medieval towns
1. images were on signs outside of shops in medieval times instead of writing because many people were
2. a knight would take an oath of _____. He promised to be loyal brave and protect the weak and poor.
3. when an army would surround a castle and wait for surrender
6. first stage of becoming a master-craftsman
7. Each family in the village had a _____ of land to grow crops and vegetables
9. a soldier in medieval times with a bow and arrow
10. If this peasant escaped for a _____ he would become free.
11. in order to become a master-craftsman you had to create a

Across

14. You were guaranteed this building in every medieval town and village
15. This epidemic killed off 1/3 of population in Middle Ages
17. Towns imposed this in order for people to extinguish their fires at sundown
18. The castle was surrounded by a deep ditch filled with water. This was called a
21. This peasant was owned by the lord. He worked 6 days a week and was given a small plot of land and house. He could not leave.
23. Many people believed that the plague was punishment from _ _ _
24. all medieval towns were surrounded by _ _ _ _ _ . This was to protect the twonspeople
25. The person responsible for collecting taxes and keeping law and order in a manor
26. The countryside estate owned by a knight or lord
29. This peasant worked in the manor, paid rent to the lord, paid a tithe to the local priest, got paid by the lord and could leave when he wanted