

Medieval World

Across

2. the power of apparently influencing events by using mysterious or supernatural forces.
4. a building or buildings occupied by a community of monks living under religious vows.
7. a member of a people not belonging to one of the great civilizations
9. a stone or wooden stand from which sermons or readings were given
11. a person holding religious beliefs other than those of the main world religions
12. a priest, magician, or soothsayer in the ancient Celtic religion.

13. a male member of a religious community living under vows of poverty, chastity and obedience
14. change in character or composition, typically in a comparatively small but significant way.
15. a bishop with authority over a group of territorially contiguous dioceses and their bishops; also known as a metropolitan
16. order of monks or nuns living according to the Rule of St Benedict
17. including a wide variety of things; all-embracing.

Down

1. mperor of Rome who stopped the persecution of Christians

3. the religion based on the person and teachings of Jesus Christ, or its beliefs and practices.
5. the church which contains the throne, or official seat, of the bishop of the diocese and therefore the "mother church" of the diocese
6. a place or state of suffering inhabited by the souls of sinners who are expiating their sins before going to heaven.
8. the monotheistic religion of the Jews.
10. show reverence and adoration for (a deity).