

Name: _____

Memory

Across

5. This researcher found that capacity of STM was 7 +/- 2
10. This is a measure of how much can be held in memory
11. Peterson and Peterson (1959) found that this was between 18-30 seconds in short term memory
12. Baddeley (1966) suggested that short term memory was encoded in this manner.
13. These researchers investigated the weapon effect

14. This is one of the stages in the cognitive interview

Down

1. This type of long term memory involved memories of personal events and emotions
2. Gabbert (2003) found that this could lead to inaccuracies in eyewitness testimony
3. This area of the WMM monitors and coordinates the slave systems
4. This area of the WMM involves coding auditory based information

6. This type of long term memory is the memory of how to do things. E.g. Riding a bike
7. This researcher investigated how your emotional state can cause retrieval failure
8. This type of interference is where past learning interferes with current learning
9. We must do this in order to get information from our sensory register to short term memory