

Memory Crossword!

Across

- 6. A form of forgetting, occurs when we don't have the necessary cues to access memory
- 8. This occurs when there is more than one witness to an event
- 9. One memory blocking another, causing one or both memories to be distorted or forgotten
- 10. The length of time information can be held in memory

11. The limited-capacity memory store with acoustic coding and a duration between 18-30 seconds

12. A representation of how memory works in terms of 3 stores and how information is transferred from one store to another

Down

1. The part of the brain HM had removed when in surgery for his epilepsy

2. A method of interviewing eyewitnesses to help them retrieve more accurate memories

3. The component of the WMM that processes visual and spatial information

4. The case study that looks at a severe form of amnesia gained from a viral infection

5. A long term memory store for our knowledge of how to do things

7. A trigger of information that allows us to access a memory