

Name: _____

Date: _____

Memory Game

Across

- 2. the limited capacity memory store
- 3. a method of interviewing eyewitnesses to help them retrieve more accurate memories
- 4. the length of time information can be held in the memory
- 8. the amount of information that can be held in the memory store
- 9. a state of emotional and physical arousal, including having worried thoughts and feeling of tension
- 11. a long term memory store for our knowledge of the world

- 12. a representation of the short term memory

- 14. the format in which information is stored in various memory stores

- 15. the ability of people to remember the details of events which they themselves observed

- 16. a form of forgetting, occurring when we don't have the necessary cues to access memory

- 17. a question which is asked in a certain way to prompt a certain answer

- 18. the memory store for each of our five senses

Down

- 1. a long term memory store for our knowledge of how to do things

- 5. a long term memory store for personal events

- 6. a trigger of information that allows us to access a memory

- 7. forgetting because one memory blocks another, causing one or both to be distorted or forgotten

- 10. the permanent memory store

- 13. a representation of how memory works in terms of three stores called sensory register, short term memory and long term