

Mental Health

Across

4. An approach to the recovery model that stresses learning a distinct set of skills necessary for managing symptoms of mental illness or emotional distress in everyday life.
9. What is the most common of all psychiatric illnesses
10. Is also known as mood
11. After the neurotransmitter completes this, it can be stored again for reuse or dissolved.
12. Fear of the marketplace
14. Loss or impairment of power of voluntary movement
16. Ingestion of alcohol while on this drug can produce unpleasant effects
18. A disease of the brain
19. The transfer of a medication from a lawful to an unlawful channel

20. A genetic disorder that results from a defect on chromosome 4 that can lead to mood changes, abnormal movements, and depression

Down

1. This can result from a chronic deficiency of Vitamin B, or Thiamine. It is most common in those who chronically abuse alcohol.
2. These medications may inhibit orgasm
3. Change of perception of self
5. Involves a reorganization of the brains circuitry in an effort to adapt to a chaining environment
6. An unconscious conflict that produces anxiety and other symptoms and leads to maladaptive use of defense mechanisms

7. What is the most common type of hallucinations

8. The development between two people in a relationship of special feelings based on mutual acceptance, warmth, friendliness, common interest, a sense of trust, and a nonjudgmental attitude
13. A nursing-developed, person-centered approach to the recovery model, which stresses the individual's personal story as significant to working on recovery.
15. Medication used for bipolar disorder
17. This questionnaire is used to help diagnose an alcoholic