

Mental and social services

Across

4. They provide understanding and _____, assist with physical care, observe and report behavior, and help teach patients constructive social behavior

7. _____ study human behavior and use this knowledge to help individuals deal with problems of everyday living.

10. Both of these fields ultimate goal is to have their patients be able to _____ at full capacity

11. _____ provide families with information about genetic diseases or inherited conditions in their lineage

12. Psychiatric/ mental health technicians help patients and their families follow treatment and _____ plans.

13. _____ are also called sociologist, case managers, or counselors.

Down

1. People who work in mental health field focus on those with _____.

2. Social workers aid people who have difficulty coping with various problems by helping them make _____ in their lives and/ or by referring them to community resources for assistance

3. _____ is a mental health professional, normally working under the direction of psychiatrist and psychiatric nurses

5. Genetic counselors can specialize in _____, pediatric counseling, neurogenetics, cardiogenetics, or genetic influences on cancer

6. _____ evaluate patients to determine their symptoms such as, physical illness, a combination of physical and mental ailments, or strictly psychiatric

8. Psychiatrist can prescribe you _____.

9. They specialize in diagnosing and treating _____

14. People that work in social services help people deal with _____, employment, and community problems