

Name: _____

Date: _____

Microbiology

Across

4. Anne suffers from hayfever. Hayfever is what type of disease?
11. Nosocomial infections are better known as
13. When the microbes stain "pink" we would say that the organism is 15. An example of a notifiable disease is
17. Measles is very virulent at the moment. Virulence means the symptoms of the disease are
18. Substances applied to living tissue or skin to reduce infection
19. The study of the occurrence, spread and control of disease

Down

1. Betty has a UTI caused by E. coli entering the urinary tract. Betty has what kind of infection?
2. Stu complains he feels hot, irritable and has a headache. He is referring to
3. If an microbe can outwit the body's defence mechanisms and survive we say it has high levels of
5. A disease causing microbe
6. When a disease spreads easily from one person to another we say it is
7. Jim is producing antibodies but doesn't show signs or symptoms. We would say Jim has an

8. Super-infections come about by the destruction of the
9. When the body is altered in some way and its metabolism is affected we would say you have a
10. Rheumatic fever is caused by streptococci bacteria that affect the heart. It may start with tonsilitis. This is an example of what kind of disease?
12. Influenza is an example of a _____ disease
14. Bridgit has temperature of 39.8 - this is a _____ she has an infection
16. Charlotte contracted meningitis which caused blood poisoning. This is an example of what type of infection?