

Name: _____

Microbiology

Across

- 2. Diffuse muscle pain
- 4. Disease that occurs when pathogenic microorganisms invade the body and overcome its natural defense mechanism
- 5. Having the pink/red color of the counter-stain used in Gram's method of staining microorganisms
- 7. Mass of hyphae that some fungi produce

10. Process of transferring microorganisms into or on a culture medium for growth

11. Retaining the purple color of the stain used in Gram's method of staining microorganisms

13. Gelatinous substance obtained from seaweed that is liquid when heated and becomes solid when cooled; used in culture media

Down

1. Feeling of weakness, distress, or discomfort

3. The rate of deaths

6. The rate in which illnesses occur

8. The reproduction of microorganisms in a laboratory culture medium

9. Visible mass of bacteria formed on a culture medium by one bacterium growing and multiplying

12. Liquid, semisolid, or solid substances containing nutrients needed to grow microorganisms