

Microbiology R169

Across

1. Microorganisms that cannot survive in oxygen rich environments.
3. Important hygiene practice to prevent infection, has 5 moments.
5. Disease caused by invasion and multiplication of micro-organisms in body tissues.
10. Intestinal parasite, may cause pressure or obstruction in the bowel.
11. Portal of entry through which infected food and water is ingested.
12. Aerobic organisms need this to survive.

14. Type of transmission of infection that involves skin to skin contact.

17. Substance in the stomach, has high acidity, destroys microbes.

18. Machine that uses steam under pressure to sterilize equipment.

Down

2. This type of environmental pH destroys microorganisms.

4. The study of tiny, living things.

6. Precautions implemented on all patients irrespective of their diagnosis or infective state.

7. To prevent parasitic infestation, do this to pets every three months.

8. Helminth that weakens the host's resistance to disease.

9. Inanimate objects on which disease producing organisms may be found and which may spread disease.

13. Organism that lives on or in host organism and survives at the expense of the host.

15. State of being without disease causing contaminants.

16. Parasite that causes tissue damage