

Name: _____

Date: _____

Microbiology

Across

- 4. Conditions that must exist for infection to occur
- 7. 6. What is the most important infection control law in dentistry
- 9. What year did the CDC issue the CDC Dental Infection Prevention Summary
- 10. Plants that lack chlorophyll
- 12. Preventing infection through safe practices
- 16. Route of infection by touching contaminated item
- 17. 8. What employees must have Infection Control training upon hire
- 18. Smallest pathogen

20. Yeast

- 21. A large group of one-celled microorganisms that vary in shape, size, and arrangement
- 22. What must be present to get sick
- 23. Cocci bacteria that grow in irregular clusters
- 24. Classification of bacteria that do not hold a dye stain

Down

- 1. Guidelines designed to protect employees from occupational exposure
- 2. What did Robert Koch develop?

3. Disease causing pathogens carried in blood

- 5. Organisms that thrive with or without oxygen
- 6. Diseases carried in the blood
- 8. What type of gloves must be worn when processing instruments and sanitizing the operatory
- 11. Classification of bacteria that hold a purple dye stain
- 13. IS the CDC a regulatory agency
- 14. Single celled animals
- 15. Used to separate bacteria into groups
- 19. Cocci bacteria that grows in chains