

Microorganisms

Across

3. A microorganism that is 1/1000 of a mm.

7. An example of fungi is _____ that can be used to make bread.

9. Bacteria divide once every _____ minutes.

11. An example of bacteria, often results in food poisoning

12. Microorganisms were first discovered in 1665 and given the name

14. The smallest microorganism that can't reproduce by itself

15. This type of microorganism varies in size and can sometimes be visible by eye

Down

1. Viruses often have a _____ shape

2. Microorganisms are _____ celled.

4. The 'best' way to stop the spread of microorganisms (2 words)

5. Many microorganisms are too small to be seen by eye, the need a _____ to view them

6. The scientific name given to a harmful microorganism

8. The genetic material in a virus are surrounded by a _____ coat

10. An example of an illness caused by a virus that leads to fever and cold-like symptoms (2 words)

13. A virus does not display the characteristics of _____ things