

Midterm Vocabulary Review

Across

6. a comparison that does not use LIKE or AS.

9. Giving human features and characteristics to non human beings.

12. A type of writing that appeals to one or more of the 5 senses.

13. The emotional "feel" of the writing.

15. a person, place, thing, or idea.

16. Where everything is resolved and worked out.

17. a series of events in the plot diagram that create drama.

19. happens after the climax and where things begin to reach a resolution.

21. The villain in the story

22. the hero in the story

Down

1. conflict that happens in the characters mind.

2. The emotional high point of the story.

3. conflict that happens when it is man vs. some sort of outside force

4. modifies a noun or a pronoun.

5. gives clues in the beginning of the story for something that will happen later on.

7. a way of giving character and setting information in a story.

8. Begins with a capital letter and is in the place of a noun.

10. the central idea or main message of a story

11. modifies or describes a verb, adjective, or adverb.

14. A comparison that does use LIKE or AS.

18. FANBOYS

20. Action word