

Mineral Properties

Across

3. The color of powder left by a mineral when it is rubbed against a hard, rough surface.
4. Another word for a milky luster.
7. Another word for a not shiny luster.
10. Another word for oily luster.
11. Another word for a glassy luster.

12. Depends on how much light is absorbed by the mineral.

Down

1. Naturally occurring, inorganic substance.
2. Used to determine the relative hardness of minerals and other objects.
5. The property of a mineral in which it breaks along rough, jagged surfaces.

6. Property of a mineral in which it breaks along smooth, definite surfaces.
8. Indicates the way a mineral's surface interacts with light and can range from dull to glassy.
9. The ability of a mineral to resist being scratched.