

Name: _____

Date: _____

Mining

Across

2. The factor of natural resource exploitation that allows resources to be obtained from natural resources through different methods and different locations

5. A high concentration of minerals in a particular area

6. The most common type of mining

10. A problem caused by mining in which deposits are used up

11. Resources that include minerals, fresh water, and forests

12. The type of mining used when minerals are very deep in the ground

Down

1. In this type of mining, boats called dredgers mine minerals from the sea bed

3. Mining has increased greatly since this "revolution"

4. This type of mining is used to extract fuel like crude oil and natural gas

7. An inorganic, natural substance with a specific chemical composition, found in the Earth's crust

8. A type of problem caused by mining in which the landscape is destroyed and water and soil are polluted

9. The various activities used to extract minerals from their deposits