

Monroe's Presidency and Everyday Life

Across

- 2. By lending money and restoring order to the nation's money supply, the _____ helped American business grow.
- 3. He was a spokesman for the south who supported the War of 1812, opposed the idea of a strong federal government, and supported slavery.
- 7. Under Chief Justice _____, the Supreme Court strengthened the power of the federal government.
- 8. Direct Involvement
- 11. This state was a refuge for many Africans and African Americans who escaped slavery.
- 17. A priest who called on Mexicans to fight for their independence from Spain in 1810.
- 22. He was a spokesman for the West who supported the War of 1812, wanted a strong federal government, and supported compromise over slavery.
- 25. To make or use laws that control something
- 26. In 1810, in case where Georgia tried to revoke a land sale, the Supreme Court ruled that a contract cannot be broken.
- 27. The treaty where Spain agreed to give Florida to the United States in exchange for $5 million to avoid going to war with the US.

28. marked a period in the political history of the United States that reflected a sense of national purpose and a desire for unity among Americans in the aftermath of the War of 1812.

29. This was a response to British markets raising prices on goods and increased the price of imported goods.

30. As the country expanded, the early republic began to create its own identity and culture which it expressed through government, religion, education, art and _____.

Down

- 1. By 1825, _____ lost all its colonies in Latin America besides Puerto Rico and Cuba.
- 4. With the end of the War of 1812, _____ again poured into the United States.
- 5. President Monroe's foreign policy statement warning European nations not to interfere in Latin America
- 6. A landmark decision where the Supreme Court ruled that the contract clause of the Constitution applied to private corporations and kept states from interfering with private corporations.
- 9. Trade between different states.
- 10. Under this clause, the Supreme Court ruled that the Constitution gave the federal government the power to charter the Bank of the United States.
- 12. Henry Clay's program that called for high tariffs to support a common market.

13. Court case that ruled states had no right to interfere with federal institutions within their borders.

14. The Supreme Court upheld the power of the federal government to regulate trade between states.

15. The economies of the South and West relied heavily on _____.

16. Loyalty to one's state or section rather than to the nation as a whole

18. He was the spokesman for the North who opposed the War of 1812, wanted to end slavery, and supported a strong federal government.

19. A person who argues for or supports

20. Did not benefit from the Tariff of 1816 because they weren't financially invested in domestic manufacturing.

21. The term describing people born to Spanish parents in Latin America.

23. African Americans who escaped slavery and lived peacefully alongside Seminole Indians in Florida.

24. Kept most British goods out of the United States.