

Name: _____

Date: _____

Monster

Across

1. to take back or away usually from a holder, a place, or condition.
7. to take or keep in custody by authority of law.
8. to divide among several or many
10. to oppose firmly usually with words
11. an apparent attempt or threat to do harm on another.

Down

2. to impose a task or responsibility on
3. a conditional release of a prisoner before the sentence has expired
4. evidence based on an observation or knowledge.
5. to suspend further proceedings for an indefinite or stated period of time
6. one made under vote before an authorised official.
9. free of guilt or blame