

Name: _____

Moses Puzzle

Across

4. a municipal body having legislative and administrative powers, such as passing ordinances and appropriating funds.
5. the legislature in some states of the U.S.
8. having the power to make laws
11. to assess or determine judicially the amount of (costs in a court action)
13. an assembly or council of citizens having the highest deliberative functions in a government, especially a legislative assembly of a state or nation.
14. a system in which the different parts of an organization (such as a government) have powers that affect and control the other parts so that no part can become too powerful

15. the highest judicial tribunal in a political unit (as a nation or state)
18. the selection of a person or persons for office by vote.
19. the largest administrative division of a U.S. state:
20. the executive head of a state in the U.S.
21. a form of government in which people choose leaders by voting

Down

1. of or relating to courts of law or judges
2. a building occupied by a state legislature.
3. the national legislative body of the U.S., consisting of the Senate, or upper house, and the House of Representatives, or lower house, as a continuous institution.

6. the allocation of executive, legislative, and judicial powers to branches of government independent of each other
7. a usually formal expression of opinion or will in response to a proposed decision
9. the highest executive officer of a modern republic, as the Chief Executive of the United States.
10. relating to the job of managing or directing other people in a company or organization
12. the system of beliefs and laws by which a country, state, or organization is governed
16. the chief executive official, usually elected, of a city, village, or town.
17. a member of a senate