

Name: _____

Mufaro's Beautiful Daughters (Adjectives)

Across

2. On the seat of the great chief's stool lay the _____ garden snake.
6. She always sang as she worked, and some said it was her singing that made her crops more _____ than anyone else's.
8. From that day on, Nyoka was always at Nyasha's side when she _____ her garden.
10. I am also the _____ hungry boy with whom you shared a yam in the forest and the old woman to whom you made a gift of sunflower seeds.

12. Everyone would agree that Manyara and Nyasha were very _____.

13. Manyara had never been in the forest at night so she was _____.

Down

1. Just as they entered through the great doors, the air was rent by _____ cries, and Manyara ran wildly out of a chamber at the centre of the enclosure.
3. Nyasha was too _____ of her father's feelings to complain, and Manyara was always careful to behave herself when Mufaro was around.

4. But when I am queen, everyone will know that your _____ kindness is only weakness.

5. You must be _____ to him.

7. "But , my father," Manyara said sweetly, "it would be _____ for either of us to leave you, even to be wife to the king.

9. They were deep in the forest when she saw the _____ boy standing by the side of the path

11. The _____ city is just on the other side.