

Multimedia Workshop

Across

2. denoting software for which the original source code is made freely available and may be redistributed and modified
9. What is the process of making file sizes smaller or changing between formats called?
10. what is the process of adding media or files to a software programme to
15. the arrangement of all the elements included in the image
16. moving the viewing angle up and down or vice versa on an image
17. moving the viewing across an image from left to right or vice versa

Down

1. The area between the frame or border of an image and the subject in the image
3. The location/ address on the internet where files will be saved to for later retrieval.
4. act of positioning multiple images or audio tracks on top of each other
5. Everything included in the image
6. The number of pixels that your image is comprised of.
7. The process of saving files on the internet on your desktop

8. the process of moving completed project outside of the software it was created with.
11. The area in the interface where cutting and pasting can be done
12. The footage recorded from the time your pressed the recording button to the point when you pressed stop.
13. the process of changing between formats
14. What is the process whereby images deteriorate when magnifying the picture
18. referring to the linking of audio and video files