

Name: _____

Date: _____

Multiple Meaning Words

Across

- 2. Common expressions
- 3. Literature in the form of prose, short stories, and novels that describes imaginary events and people
- 6. Words that sound the same, but have different spellings and different meanings
- 8. A piece of evidence or information used to solve or find out information

- 9. The main events of a novel, story, play, or movie
 - 10. Punctuation mark meaning to take a break
 - 12. Literary work in special intensity is given
 - 13. Words having the same pronunciation, but different meanings or spelling
 - 14. Capitalization rules
- ## Down
- 1. Resembling without being identical

- 4. Words that are spelled identically, but have different sounds and meanings
- 5. Words having the same spelling, but different meanings
- 7. Words spelled the same, but not necessarily pronounced the same and having different meanings
- 11. A form of language or literature with no formal structure