

Name: _____

Date: _____

Period: _____

Muscular System Vocabulary

Across

- 6. One thing all three muscle types have in common is they _____
- 9. These muscles are responsible for moving things through organs
- 12. The "anchor" for the skeletal muscle
- 13. The muscle attachment point that is less stable and can move with joint.

Down

- 1. Type of muscle that most closely compares to skeletal muscles
- 2. This acronym is used to describe the duties of the Parasympathetic Nervous System.
- 3. These muscles are large and are only good for quick bursts
- 4. Muscles that are more for stamina and endurance

- 5. This nerve type takes info to the CNS
- 7. To make movement, muscles _____ across a joint
- 8. This nervous system controls things that are involuntary
- 10. This nerve type sends commands from the CNS to the muscles
- 11. These connect muscle to bone