

Music Job Roles

Across

- 2. person who controls the sound at live events such as theater performances and music concerts
- 4. Someone who performs music through the playing of an instrument or singing.
- 11. someone who creates an easily recognizable brand for the public, help to create a fan base through various media and publicity
- 12. a person who travels round with the band/performer to handle parts of the concert production
- 13. ensures smooth running of the venue and ensures it is a profitable business, works closely with artists, ensuring quality of music performance, and negotiating fees

14. person who takes per-mixed music and streams it or puts it onto physical media (CD, vinyl record)

15. person who reviews and reports on popular music topics, including profiles of singers and bands, live concerts, and album reviews

16. a musician called in to play at a short notice, must be good at learning music almost immediately

Down

1. the part of the record label that is responsible for talent scouting, and overseeing recording artists

3. the person who oversee's and manage's the recording of a band/performers music

5. person who guides the professional career of a band/artist through the music industry

6. someone who writes music, in the form of written music or electronic music on a computer

7. have specialist knowledge of specialist instruments, to be able to support use of them

8. ensures the studio is organised, sorts out bookings, equipment and administration

9. person who assembles, operates, and maintains the technical equipment used for recording

10. the person who directs a musical performance, by using physical gestures with their hands, arms, face and head