

NATURAL AND HUMAN RESOURCES

Across

5. State with highest density of population in India.
 7. The number of live births per 1000 people in a particular year.
 8. Nonrenewable energy resource, such as oil and coal, formed over millions of years from the remains of dead plants and other organisms.
 10. Inexhaustible energy resource that used hot magma or hot, dry rocks from below Earth's surface to generate electricity.

Down

1. A natural resource that can be used and replaced over a relatively short time.
 2. When people come from another area.
 3. Careful use of resources to reduce damage to the environment though such methods as composting and recycling materials.
 4. Ratio between number of females and males in a population.
 6. Most populated country of the world.
 9. Protecting employees from injuries due to work-related accidents.

Word Bank

FOSSILFUELS

CHINA

BIHAR

RENEWABLERESOURCE

GEOTHERMALENERGY

SEXRATIO

BIRTHRATE

SAFETY

CONSERVATION

INMIGRATIO