

NIS Crossword

Across

- 3. This vaccine replaces MMR II at the 15 month and 4 year immunisation event
- 4. A vaccine for this highly infectious viral disease had been added to the NIS from July 1 2017
- 7. This viral infection requires an annual vaccine and is funded for during pregnancy and in over 65s
- 9. Also known as whooping cough, this bacterial disease is spread by coughing and sneezing
- 11. This is a rare condition in a recipient that increases the risk of a serious adverse reaction

- 12. This is an oral vaccine to provide infant protection from rotavirus
- 13. It is highly recommended that women receive vaccines against pertussis and influenza during this time
- 14. This vaccine provides protection from Haemophilus influenzae type b (Hib)
- 15. This vaccine is administered at 7 years and recommended in the last trimester of pregnancy

Down

- 1. The vaccine that provides protection from human papillomavirus

- 2. The development of immunity against a particular disease by vaccine administration
- 5. This is a condition in a recipient that may increase the risk for a serious adverse reaction
- 6. This is a conjugate vaccine that protects infants from pneumococcal disease
- 8. This category of vaccines are live
- 10. This viral disease develops from reactivation of the chickenpox virus