

NLA1 Lesson 4

Across

1. yellow, red and blue are the primary...
 5. this month brings Spring and lambs and sunshine (if it knows what's good for it)
 7. the month in which new year's resolutions are meant to fail
 11. used for cooking, baking and frying (and to threaten Disney princes with, in Rapunzel's case)
 16. holds our brain, sometimes aches, especially when people whine at us
 17. the most dreaded day of the week, according to pop songs
 18. When you're too lazy to take the stairs, you take the
 21. we sleep in one, usually placed in a bedroom

22. this month usually brings the start of the dreaded school year
 24. when it's not short, it's
 25. this month brings tiny lights and tinsel and Mariah Carey hits
 26. when it's not long, it's..
 27. jewellery, in this case worn in the earlobe
 28. the top of the house. People are always climbing up them in films to be romantic and adventurous

Down

2. 17, spelled out
 3. we turn them on when it gets dark
 4. it's better than a balcony
 6. a tower, usually on a cliff, where they used to light fires to beckon incoming ships. Very popular in romance films as well

8. used to paint walls (and in the process, ourselves)
 9. after Tuesday comes market day, which is...
 10. before Sunday, is the best day of the week...
 12. where kids go to learn (or at least drive teachers up the wall)
 13. the dark and gloomy part of the house, there's monsters down there
 14. holds liquid, such as wine, soda and shampoo
 15. 8, spelled out
 19. 12, spelled out
 20. 2, spelled out
 23. the Dutch like to eat with with cheese