

NURSE WORD PUZZLE

Across

- 2. A type of reasoning wherein general conclusions are made based from specific concepts.
- 3. Building blocks of theories which can either be an empirical or abstract data.
- 5. To identify under which conditions relationships occur.
- 6. Acquiring experience, skills, information and values.
- 10. An empirical data that can be observed.
- 11. Achieving understanding of sensory data.
- 14. Method by which nurse acts in using nursing theory.

- 15. Statements that imply the relationships of concepts.
- 16. Transferring data from sender to receiver using different mediums or tools of communication.
- 17. To examine how properties relate and thus affect the discipline.
- 19. Mental process of seeking conclusions through reason.
- 20. Use of systematic methods that to study a phenomenon and create a general knowledge.

Down

- 1. To know the properties and workings of a discipline.

- 4. To calculate relationships between properties and how they occur.
- 7. A testable relationship statement.
- 8. Statements that the theorists hold as factual.
- 9. A type of reasoning that uses specific details to form a general conclusion.
- 12. Resembles environment to which nursing act takes place.
- 13. Combining two or more concepts/ ideas to form a new concept, or for comparison.
- 18. Another term for conceptual framework or model.

Word Bank

Assumptions	Predictive	Association	Explanatory	Concepts
Perception	Learning	Process	Phenomenon	Research
Context	Communication	Reasoning	Propositions	Paradigms
Descriptive	Induction	Prescriptive	Deduction	Hypothesis