

Nail conditions, diseases and disorders

Across

- 1. This condition is identified as a condition where the nail may occasionally shed or come off.
- 8. This is a common condition generally caused by an injury to the matrix allowing an air pocket to form.
- 10. Flaking can be due to biting, incorrect or severe hand and nail treatments.
- 11. Single transverse (horizontal) furrow, possible result of poor health

Down

- 2. The sides of the nail plate grows into the flesh of the nail wall, also known as ingrowing nail.

- 3. Brittle nails - poor blood supply causes by anaemia
- 4. Spoon shaped nail, an adnormal growth causes the nail to splay at the sides
- 5. What is another word for Nail biting
- 6. Another name for this is claw nail. The nail plate has thickened and in some causes discoloured nails.
- 7. The cuticle has split as it has adhered tongue nail plate and can not continue to move forward with the growth of the nail.
- 9. The cuticle has a hardened growth over and stuck to the nail plate, overgrowth of the cuticle.