

Narrative Terms

Across

5. The most important part of a section of writing is called this?

11. What is a single abstract concept that reoccurs throughout the work?

12. this evokes certain feelings or vibes in readers through words and descriptions

13. This is a when you pull up a quote (a passage, book, or author) as evidence for or justification of an argument or statement, especially in a scholarly work.

14. An _____ is a conversation where questions are asked and answers are given.

15. is a brief summary that gives audiences an idea of what a composition is about.

16. To _____ is to deduce or conclude (information) from evidence and reasoning rather than from explicit statements

17. the process of recounting a sequence of events, real or imagined.

Down

1. The literary element that describes the ways that the author uses words – the author's word choice, sentence structure, figurative language, and sentence arrangement all work together to establish mood, images, and meaning in the text.

2. What is an attitude of a writer toward a subject or an audience

3. This is the unspoken or less obvious meaning or message in a literary composition, drama, speech, or conversation.

4. In the broadest sense, this includes any case of two or more characters speaking to each other directly

6. What is a digital audio file made available on the Internet for downloading to a computer or mobile device, typically available as a series, new installments of which can be received by subscribers automatically.

7. This term is Latin for "into the middle of things." It usually describes a narrative that begins, not at the beginning of a story, but somewhere in the middle

8. This is when you compare two unrelated objects are compared for their shared qualities

9. In literature, a _____ is a statement that asserts something to be true

10. What defines the term for the repeating of a word or phrase?