

Name: _____

Date: _____

National Crossword Puzzle Day - Religious Films

Across

- 3. In 1980, this film would rip your heart out as a little girl, thinking she is going to die, gives her blood to save her brother.
- 9. This missionary video from 1990 features Skip's uncle (from the Alma the Younger Seminary video) who is returning home from his mission and reminisces about his mission with a non-member on a plane.
- 10. Another 1977 classic suggests that when you choose the very first step of the road, you also choose the last.
- 11. The first name of this 2004 superhero who helped his friend become elected to student body office while keeping his family together after his aunt broke her coccyx while 4-wheeling on the sand dunes.

- 12. In 1993, this film debuted in the Joseph Smith Memorial Building. Rick Springfield's doppelganger played Joseph Smith.
- 14. Got Milk? This 1969 Latter-day Saint Superhero had plenty of milk to give...at least 8 cows worth!
- 15. This 1962 classic shows teenagers going to Eagle City to get some beer. One young lad, remembering his mother's counsel, defies peer pressure to the relief of his date.

Down

- 1. In an old western town, a man ignores instructions on a piece of paper while looking to quench his thirst.
- 2. This 1964 video that taught the Plan of Salvation was created for the New York World's Fair.

- 4. This religious man, in 2006, saved orphans by seeking eagle powers and becoming a luchador.
- 5. This TC Christensen classic shows zany answers to gospel questions from children.
- 6. This classic features Marc McLure (Jimmy Olson in the old Superman Movies) inquiring about weed killer.
- 7. In 1978, this alcoholic relative was blessed with compassion from the Lord to be able to kick the habit and care for his niece and nephew.
- 8. Debuting in 1973, we see two missionaries who are not the ordinary, fearlessly extraordinary.
- 13. This 1977 classic shows Lethe Anderson and the emptiness of this on her street