

National Patient Safety Week

Across

- 4. A potentially life-threatening complication of an infection
5. Precautions used when a patient has MRSA
6. Hospital-Acquired Pressure Injury
8. Falls often occur here
10. Primary mechanism available for reporting adverse patient events, near misses, & good catches

11. Precautions that are the minimum infection prevention practices that should be used in the care of all patients all the time

12. All patients undergoing surgical, invasive, or bedside procedures will have a _____ performed prior to the start of the procedure

13. A culture of _____ encourages & supports the reporting of any situation that threatens the patient

Down

- 1. Acceptable patient identifier
2. The most important way to prevent the spread of infection
3. An event or situation that did not produce patient injury, but only because of chance
7. Communication between departments & shifts are enhanced when proper _____ are made.
9. Encourage patients to _____ if they do not understand something about their care