

Name: _____

National Radiologic Technology Week 2018

Across

- 2. Describing a central ray direction toward the head
- 4. Another term for big toe
- 10. A position in which the patient is lying face down
- 11. Outward turning of the foot at the ankle
- 13. The eye of the dog
- 14. Talar domes should be superimposed on this view
- 17. Proximal foot bone, also found in the wrist
- 20. The father of x-ray

- 21. Describing a central ray direction toward the feet.
- 22. The tipping position
- 23. More of the image is less of this

Down

- 1. Flexion of the foot towards the leg
- 3. A radiographic landmark located between the eyebrows
- 5. Turning away from the standard course, ulnar
- 6. An anteroposterior 30 degree angle projection utilized for head work
- 7. Fracture of the 5th digit

- 8. Esophagram drink
- 9. A massive - build body habitus with high, transverse organ placement
- 12. A standing or seated upright body position
- 15. Largest sesamoid bone
- 16. Used by technologists to indicate laterality
- 18. Away from mid-line
- 19. Referring to the front of the body
- 24. Central ray for PA projection of the hand; 3rd _____ Joint